

Peabody Receives 'Employer of the Year – Energy & Natural Resources' Award from Corporate LiveWire

Peabody was recently named “Employer of the Year – Energy & Natural Resources” for 2018 by United Kingdom-based Corporate LiveWire, which called the company a “pace-setter in safety and health, sustainability practices and its people orientation.”

The honors were given by a panel of judges as part of Corporate LiveWire’s annual Innovation & Excellence Awards program, which recognizes companies for innovation, products and services, industry recognition, use of technology, sustainable development, ethical practice, service excellence, marketing and branding and employee satisfaction. The judging panel was made up of experts in entrepreneurial leadership, business data solutions and creative thinking.

“...Peabody serves as an example of excellence as they promote an inclusive and people-centered culture which creates competitive advantage,” the judges wrote. “The company seeks an empowered and collaborative workplace that is built upon a foundation of mutual trust and respect. Peabody routinely gathers feedback from team members to identify opportunities that further enhance the employee value proposition.”

Peabody (NYSE: BTU) is the leading global pure-play coal company, serving power and steel customers in more than 25 countries on six continents. The company offers significant scale, high-quality assets, and diversity in geography and products.
